Definition of the child (Article 1): The Convention defines a 'child' as a person below the age of 18, unless the laws of a particular country set the legal age for adulthood younger. The Committee on the Rights of the Child, the monitoring body for the Convention, has encouraged States to review the age of majority if it is set below 18 and to increase the level of protection for all children under 18 (The Convention on the Rights of the Child by UN). In Bangladesh street children are defined as those who earn their living on the city streets and stay there for most or all of the day. They may or may not have parents or legal guardians. Street children can be broadly divided into two groups.

- Those who spend all the time on the street. The street is their home where they eat, sleep, make friends, work and play.
 - Those who spend a major part of the day on the street but return home every night. (UNICEF, 1993 :61).

The socio-gram shows that the life situation of the street child is conditioned very much by the family situation. The presence of the family assures the psychological suappor needed for growth bout the absence of other basic necessities affects the child's growth opportunities. The roots of the porbledm are in the village where widespread poverty, manifested through unemployed and destitution, compels people to migrate to cities. In the city, they are forced to take shelter on the streets as their only chance of suvival (GOB and UNDP 1999). A_ঠ- mgwRK Ae`v netki Y t`Lq th, c_ iki/Qbj iRxb cwi emi K Ae`v I cwi`vZi 0viv Ly teik ibqisZ nq/ cwi evti i iki i gibimK mg_0 I Ab"v" ibZ" cjqvRbxq iRbtmi Abgv`vZ iki i -fweK neKvtki mfhM-mjeavi Dci cfive ve`li Kti / mgm"vi gtj Avtq e`vcK `vi`Zv, teKvi Ges ibtm%Zv hv`vi ` tkvYtK Mq t_tK knti i w_tK -vbrshii Z ntZ eva" Kit0/ knti Zviv tetP _vKvi GKgvi mfhM intmte dltctZ Avkq ibtZ eva" nq/*
